The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday Novemb. 9. to Thursday Novemb. 12 1696.

Warsaw, October 26. N. S.

THE Baron Scarlati, Envoy Extraordinary from the Elector of Bavaria, arrived here the 24th in the Evening; The Queen sent one of her own Coaches to meet him, and gave him presently a private Audience, and a publick one this morning; To the latter he was conducted by the Captain of the Queen's Guards, and 20 Halbardiers called Trabanti, with all other Marks of Esteem and Respect as well for his Person as Character. The Frontiers of this Kingdom about Lembergh, are very much allarmed by the march of a great Body of Tartars, who, it's feared, will do a great deal of mischief before a sufficient Force can be got together to oppose them.

Vienna, October 31. Prince Lewis of Baden is shortly expected here from Germany, and General Caprara from Hungary; when a great Council of War will be held at this Court, to take fitting Resolutions concerning the Preparations to be made for the next year. The Elector of Saxony continues still here, and 'tis discourfed, that he will assist the Emperor with a further number of his Forces against the next Campagne. The last Advices from the Frontiers say, the Turkish Troops are all gone to their Winter Quarters, having left strong Garisons at Belgrade and Temeswaer; The Troops that lay near the last of these Places, being designed, as 'twas thought, to make an Inroad into Transylvania, are likewise separated; part have repassed the Danube, and the rest have taken their Quarters on the other side of that River. We have an account from Croatia, that the Parties which are frequently sent out, by the Governor of that Country, do very much annoy the Enemy, and that they are now making preparations for a considerable Expedition.

Pembrooke, Nov. 6. On the 3d Instant sailed out of this Port His Majesty's Ships the Lincoln, Play-Prize, St. Malo, and Smirna-Merchant, having under their Convoy the Merchant Ships that lately arrived here from Barbadoes, with divers other Vessels bound to London and other Ports. The 4th came in a Sloop belonging to Pensilvania, laden with Tobacco from Virginia; and this Evening arrived here His Majesty's Ship the Chester from Plimouth.

Falmouth, Nov. 7. On the 2d Instant arrived here the Hudson's-Bay Frigat, Nicholas Smithsend Commander, from Hudsons-Bay: She came out in Company of the Bonadventure, Seaford, and Dering, but was soon after separated from them in bad Weather. The 4th came in the Great-Russell Galley bound to the Streights. Yesterday about 30 Sail of Ships were seen off this place, plying to Windward, the Wind at South-west; This morning sailed the Jolly, and Russell Galley; and in the afternoon about 70 Sail appeared in the Offing, standing to the Eastward, which we believe to be the Fleet from Milford.

Plimouth, Nov. 8. On the 4th came in here a Dutch Ship from the East-Indies, taken by the French, and re-taken by a Guernsey Privateer. Yesterday the Germoon brought in a small French Prize laden with Wine and Brandy; and this day arrived here His Majesty's Ship the Lincoln, with divers Merchant Ships from Milford.

Weymouth, Nov. 9. The Elizabeth of this place is come in here from Milford, whence she sailed the 3d Instant in company of 8 Merchant Ships from the West-Indies, and divers Coasters under Convoy of several Men of War. A French Privateer of 8 Guns is put in here, taken lately by the Portland.

Bristol,